Tenders of Notes may be validly withdrawn at or prior to the Withdrawal Deadline, but may not be withdrawn thereafter, except to the extent set forth below or as required by law. If the Offer is extended, the Withdrawal Deadline will be extended to the earlier of the Expiration Date (as extended) and (ii) the tenth (10th) business day after the Commencement Date (as specified herein). Tenders may also be validly withdrawn if the Offer has not been consummated within sixty (60) business days after the Commencement Date.

The Company expressly reserves the absolute right, in its sole discretion, from time to time to purchase any Notes that remain outstanding after the expiration of the Offer through open-market or privately negotiated transactions, one or more additional tender or exchange offers or otherwise, on terms that may or may not be equal to the consideration offered in the Offer for the Notes, or to exercise any of its rights under the documents governing the Notes. See “The Offer—Certain Significant Consequences to Holders.”

All of the Notes are held in book-entry form through the facilities of the Depository Trust Company (“DTC”). Unless the context otherwise requires, all references herein to Holders include each person who is shown on the records of DTC as a Holder of Notes. In the event of a termination of or withdrawal of Notes from the Offer, Notes tendered through DTC will be credited to the Holder through DTC.

Questions and requests for assistance may be directed to Global Bondholder Services Corporation in respect of the Notes, our tender and information agent (in such respective capacities, the “Tender Agent” and the “Information Agent”) and Crédit Agricole Corporate and Investment Bank (“CACIB”), our sole structuring bank and sole dealer manager (the “Dealer Manager”), at the telephone numbers and addresses set forth on the back cover of this Offer to Purchase.

You may request additional copies of the Offer to Purchase from the Information Agent at the telephone numbers and addresses on the back cover of the Offer to Purchase. Beneficial owners may also contact their brokers, dealers, commercial banks, trust companies or other nominee for assistance concerning the Offer. Any Holder or beneficial owner that has questions concerning tender procedures with respect to the Notes should contact the Information Agent at the address and telephone number set forth on the back cover of this Offer to Purchase.

We will announce the amount of the principal amounts of Notes accepted for purchase as soon as reasonably practicable after the Expiration Date.

Notes repurchased by the Company pursuant to the Offer will be immediately cancelled. Notes that have not been validly tendered and/or accepted for purchase, or which have been tendered and validly withdrawn, pursuant to the Offer will remain outstanding after the settlement of the Offer.

The above announcement and all other announcements in connection with the Notes will be made available on the website of the Company at <https://www.credit-agricole.com/en/finance/finance/debt> and may also be obtained upon request from the Information Agent, the contact details for which are on the last page of this Offer to Purchase.

Under no circumstances will any interest be payable because of any delay in the transmission of funds to Holders by DTC.

Notwithstanding any other provision of the Offer Documents, the Company’s obligation to accept for purchase, and to pay the Offer Price and any Accrued Interest for the Notes validly tendered pursuant to the Offer is subject to, and conditioned upon, the satisfaction or, where applicable, the Company’s waiver of the conditions described below under the caption “The Offer—Conditions of the Offer.” The Company reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to waive any one or more of the conditions at any time in respect of the Offer. See “The Offer—Conditions of the Offer.”

In the Offer Documents, the term “business day” means any day other than a Saturday or Sunday or any other day on which banking institutions are generally authorized or obligated by law or regulation to close in New York City.

NONE OF THE COMPANY, THE DEALER MANAGER, THE TENDER AGENT, THE INFORMATION AGENT OR THE FISCAL AGENT EXPRESSES ANY OPINION ABOUT THE TERMS OF THE OFFER TO PURCHASE OR MAKES ANY RECOMMENDATION THAT ANY HOLDER TENDER OR REFRAIN FROM TENDERING ALL OR ANY PORTION OF THE PRINCIPAL AMOUNT OF SUCH HOLDER'S NOTES, AND NO ONE HAS BEEN AUTHORIZED BY ANY OF THEM TO MAKE SUCH A RECOMMENDATION. HOLDERS MUST MAKE THEIR OWN DECISIONS AS TO WHETHER TO TENDER NOTES, AND, IF SO, THE PRINCIPAL AMOUNT OF NOTES TO TENDER.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

This Offer to Purchase contains important information that Holders are urged to read before any decision is made with respect to a tender of Notes pursuant to the Offer. Holders must make their own decision as to whether to tender any of their Notes pursuant to the Offer, and if so, the principal amount of Notes to tender. Holders should consult their own tax, accounting, financial and legal advisors as they deem appropriate regarding the suitability of the tax, accounting, financial and legal consequences of participating or declining to participate in the Offer.

Because only registered holders of Notes may tender Notes, beneficial owners of Notes must instruct the broker, dealer, commercial bank, trust company or other nominee that holds Notes on their behalf to tender Notes on such beneficial owners' behalf. DTC has authorized DTC participants that hold Notes on behalf of beneficial owners of Notes through DTC to tender their Notes as if they were Holders.

All of the Notes are held in book-entry form through the facilities of DTC. If you desire to tender Notes, you must transfer such Notes through DTC's Automated Tender Offer Program ("ATOP") to the Tender Agent in accordance with the procedures described in "The Offer—Procedures for Tendering Notes—How to Tender Notes held through DTC". Delivery of the Agent's Message (as defined herein) by DTC will satisfy the terms of the Offer. Accordingly, a Holder tendering Notes through ATOP does not need to complete a letter of transmittal.

If a Holder wishes to tender Notes in the Offer and the Holder's Notes are not immediately available or the Holder cannot deliver such Notes to the Tender Agent prior to the Expiration Date, or the Holder cannot complete the procedures for book-entry transfer on a timely basis or if the time will not permit all required documents to reach the Tender Agent before the Expiration Date, such tender may be effected by using the guaranteed delivery procedure specified in "The Offer—Procedures for Tendering Notes—Guaranteed Delivery Procedures" below, including delivery of a Notice of Guaranteed Delivery (as defined herein). We refer to this Offer to Purchase and the Notice of Guaranteed Delivery (as defined herein), together as the "Offer Documents".

Beneficial owners of Notes are advised to check with any bank, securities broker or other intermediary through which they hold Notes when such intermediary would need to receive instructions from a beneficial owner of Notes in order for that beneficial owner to be able to participate in, or withdraw their instruction to participate in the Offer by the deadlines specified in this Offer to Purchase. The deadlines set by any such intermediary and DTC for the submission and withdrawal of tender instructions will be earlier than the relevant deadlines specified in this Offer to Purchase.

A beneficial owner of Notes tendered by tendering Holders will not be obligated to pay brokerage fees or commissions to the Dealer Manager, the Tender Agent, the Information Agent, the fiscal agent with respect to the Notes (the "Fiscal Agent") or the Company. Beneficial owners whose Notes are registered in the name of a nominee must contact such nominee to ascertain whether such beneficial owner will be charged a fee by the nominee for tendering its Notes.

Requests for additional copies of this Offer to Purchase and requests for assistance relating to the procedures for tendering Notes may be directed to the Information Agent at the address and telephone number on the back cover page of this Offer to Purchase. Requests for assistance relating to the terms and conditions of the Offer may be directed to the Dealer Manager at the addresses and telephone numbers on the back cover page of this Offer to Purchase. Beneficial owners may also contact their broker, dealer, commercial bank, trust company or other nominee for assistance regarding the Offer.

No dealer, salesperson or other person has been authorized to give any information or to make any representation not contained in this Offer to Purchase, and, if given or made, such information or representation may not be relied upon as having been authorized by the Company, the Tender Agent, the Information Agent, the Dealer Manager or the Fiscal Agent.

None of the Dealer Manager, the Tender Agent, the Information Agent or the Fiscal Agent has independently verified, makes any representation or warranty, express or implied, regarding, or assumes any responsibility for, the accuracy or adequacy of the information provided herein. The Fiscal Agent will conclusively rely on the results of the Offer as reported by the Tender Agent and us, and the Fiscal Agent will have no liability in connection therewith.

Concurrently with the Offer, we are making an invitation to certain eligible holders of other notes to offer to sell such notes to us. Holders may not tender any securities in this Offer other than the Notes specified on the cover page of this Offer to Purchase.

The Dealer Manager will calculate the Offer Price and any Accrued Interest with respect to Notes accepted for purchase, and the calculation will be final and binding on all Holders whose Notes were accepted for purchase, absent manifest error.

No tender of Notes will be valid if submitted after the Expiration Date. In the event of termination of an Offer, the Notes tendered pursuant to such Offer will be promptly returned to the tendering Holders.

Conditions of the Offer

The Offer is subject to the satisfaction or, where applicable, the waiver of certain conditions set forth herein. The Offer is not conditioned upon any minimum principal amount of the Notes being tendered or the completion of any other offer.

Notwithstanding any other provision of the Offer, and in addition to (and not in limitation of) the Company’s right, subject to applicable law, to terminate, extend or amend the Offer in the Company’s sole discretion, the Company will not be obligated to accept for purchase, and pay for, validly tendered Notes pursuant to the Offer if the General Conditions (as defined below) have not been satisfied or, where possible, waived with respect to the Offer.

For purposes of the foregoing provisions, all of the “General Conditions” will be deemed to have been satisfied in respect of an Offer on the Expiration Date unless any of the following conditions shall have occurred and be continuing after the date of this Offer to Purchase and before such Expiration Date:

- (i) any general suspension of trading in, or limitation on prices for, securities in the United States or France or securities or financial markets in these jurisdictions, (ii) a material impairment in the trading market for debt securities, (iii) a declaration of a banking moratorium or any suspension of payments in respect of banks in the United States or France (whether or not mandatory), (iv) any limitation (whether or not mandatory) by any governmental authority on, or other event having a reasonable likelihood of affecting, the extension of credit by banks or other lending institutions in the United States or France, (v) any attack on, outbreak or escalation of hostilities or acts of terrorism involving the United States or France that would reasonably be expected to have a materially disproportionate effect on the Company's (or its subsidiaries') business, operations, condition or prospects relative to other companies in the same industry or (vi) any significant adverse change in the United States securities or financial markets generally or, in the case of any of the foregoing existing on the date hereof, a material acceleration or worsening thereof;

- the existence of an order, statute, rule, regulation, executive order, stay, decree, judgment or injunction that shall have been enacted, entered, issued, promulgated, enforced or deemed applicable by any court or governmental, regulatory or administrative agency or instrumentality that, in the Company's reasonable judgment, would or would be reasonably likely to prohibit, prevent or materially restrict or delay consummation of the Offer or that is, or is reasonably likely to be, materially adverse to the business, operations, properties, condition (financial or otherwise), assets, liabilities or prospects of the Company or its subsidiaries;
- any instituted or pending action or proceeding before or by any court or governmental, regulatory or administrative agency or instrumentality, or by any other person, that challenges the making of the Offer or is reasonably likely to directly or indirectly prohibit, prevent, restrict or delay the consummation of the Offer or otherwise adversely affects the Offer in any material manner;
- there exists, any other actual or threatened legal impediment to the Offer or any other circumstances that would materially adversely affect the transactions contemplated by the Offer or the contemplated benefits of the Offer to the Company or its subsidiaries;
- an event or events or the likely occurrence of an event or events that would or might reasonably be expected to prohibit, restrict or delay the consummation of the Offer or materially impair the contemplated benefits of the Offer; or
- the fiscal agent for the Notes objects in any respect to, or takes any action that would be reasonably likely to materially and adversely affect, the consummation of the Offer, or takes any action that challenges the validity or effectiveness of the procedures used by the Company in the making of the Offer or in the acceptance of the Notes.

The conditions described above are solely for the Company's benefit and may be asserted by the Company regardless of the circumstances giving rise to any such condition, and, where possible, may be waived by the Company, in whole or in part, at any time and from time to time before the Settlement Date. The Company's failure at any time to exercise any of its rights will not be deemed a waiver of any other right, and each right will be deemed an ongoing right which may be asserted at any time and from time to time.

If the Company terminates the Offer in whole or in part, it will give written notice thereof to the Tender Agent, and all of the Notes theretofore tendered pursuant to such Offer and not accepted for purchase will be returned promptly to the tendering Holders thereof. See "Expiration Date; Extension; Amendments; Termination" below.

Certain Significant Consequences to Holders

In deciding whether to participate in the Offer, each Holder should consider carefully, in addition to the other information contained in this Offer to Purchase, the following:

Limited Trading Market for the Notes

To the extent that Notes are tendered and accepted in the Offer, the trading market for the Notes will likely become further limited. A bid for a debt security with a smaller outstanding principal amount available for trading (a smaller "float") may be lower than a bid for a comparable debt security with a greater float. Therefore, the market price for, and liquidity of, Notes not tendered or tendered but not purchased may be affected adversely to the extent that the principal amount of the Notes purchased pursuant to the Offer reduces the float of the Notes. The reduced float may also tend to make the trading price more volatile. Holders of unpurchased Notes may attempt to obtain quotations for their Notes from their brokers. However, there can be no assurance that an active trading market will exist for the Notes following consummation of the Offer. The extent of the public market for the Notes following consummation of the Offer will depend upon a number of factors, including the size of the float, the number of Holders remaining at such time and their interest in trading the Notes, and the interest in maintaining a market in the Notes on the part of securities firms.

Taxation

In view of the number of different jurisdictions where tax laws may apply to Holders, this Offer to Purchase does not discuss the tax consequences for such Holders arising from the purchase of Notes for cash pursuant to the Offer (except as provided in the section below “—Certain U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences”). Holders are urged to consult their own professional advisers regarding the possible tax consequences that may arise under the laws of the jurisdictions that apply to them in connection with the Offer. Holders are liable for their own taxes and have no recourse against the Company, the Dealer Manager, the Tender Agent or the Information Agent with respect to taxes arising in connection with the Offer.

Other Actions Affecting the Notes

Whether or not the Offer is consummated, the Company or its affiliates may from time to time following the expiration of the Offer take other actions that affect the Notes, including:

- acquiring Notes, other than pursuant to the Offer, through open-market purchases, privately negotiated transactions, other tender offers, exchange offers or otherwise, upon such terms and at such prices as they may determine, which may be more or less than the prices to be paid pursuant to the Offer and could be for cash or other consideration; or
- redeeming the Notes pursuant to the terms thereof.

The effect of any of these actions may directly or indirectly affect the price of any Notes that remain outstanding after the consummation of the Offer.

Procedures for Tendering Notes

All of the Notes are held in book-entry form through the facilities of DTC. The instructions for tenders are set forth below. There is no separate letter of transmittal in connection with tenders of Notes pursuant to the Offer.

Tender Denominations

In order to be valid, instructions with respect to the Notes must be submitted in respect of a minimum principal amount of such Notes of no less than USD100,000 and multiples of USD1,000 thereafter. No alternative, conditional or contingent tenders will be accepted. Holders who tender less than all of their Notes must continue to hold Notes in at least the minimum authorized denomination of USD100,000 principal amount.

How to Tender Notes held through DTC

How to Tender if you are a Beneficial Owner but not a DTC Participant

Any beneficial owner whose Notes are held through DTC by a broker, dealer, custodian bank, depository, trust company or other nominee and who wishes to tender Notes should contact such nominee promptly and instruct such entity to tender Notes on such beneficial owner’s behalf.

How to Tender if you are a DTC Participant

To participate in an Offer, a DTC Participant holding Notes through DTC must comply with ATOP procedures as described herein. At or prior to the Expiration Date, Notes to be tendered must be transferred through book-entry transfer as described herein, and the Tender Agent must receive a properly transmitted Agent’s Message. No documents should be sent to the Company, the Dealer Manager or the Information Agent.

Tendering through DTC’s ATOP

The Tender Agent will establish accounts with respect to the Notes at DTC for purposes of the Offer. The Tender Agent and DTC have confirmed that the Offer is eligible for ATOP, whereby a financial institution that is a participant in DTC's system may tender Notes by making book-entry delivery of Notes by causing DTC to transfer Notes into an ATOP account. Any Holder that wishes to participate in the Offer and which holds its Notes through a custodial entity, such as a bank, broker, dealer, trust company or other nominee must instruct that custodial entity to tender such Holder's Notes on its behalf pursuant to the procedures of that custodial entity.

To effectively tender Notes, Holders should, through a DTC participant, transmit their acceptance through ATOP, and DTC will then edit and verify the acceptance and send an Agent's Message to the Tender Agent for its acceptance. The term "Agent's Message" means a message, transmitted by DTC to, and received by, the Tender Agent and forming a part of a book-entry confirmation, which states that DTC has received an express acknowledgment from the tendering participant stating that such participant has accepted the Offer and agrees to be bound by the terms, conditions and provisions of such Offer. An Agent's Message and any other required documents must be transmitted to, and received by, the Tender Agent before the Expiration Date. Delivery of the Agent's Message by DTC will satisfy the terms of the Offer. DTC participants need not complete a physical letter of transmittal with respect to Notes being tendered. Instead, by delivering an Agent's Message accepting the offer through ATOP, a DTC participant will be deemed to have delivered a binding letter of transmittal making the representations, warranties and undertakings specified below under "—Representations, Warranties and Undertakings; the Company's Acceptance Constitutes an Agreement."

The delivery and surrender of the Notes is not effective, and the risk of loss of the Notes does not pass to the Tender Agent, until receipt by the Tender Agent of timely confirmation of a book-entry transfer of such Notes into the Tender Agent's account at DTC and a properly transmitted Agent's Message, together with all accompanying evidences of authority and any other required documents in a form satisfactory to the Company. The method of delivery of the Notes and all other required documents, including delivery through DTC and acceptance of an Agent's Message transmitted through ATOP, is at the option and risk of the tendering Holder. In all cases, sufficient time should be allowed for such documents to reach the Tender Agent prior to the Expiration Date in order to be eligible to receive the Offer Price and any Accrued Interest.

Holders are advised to check with any bank, securities broker or other intermediary through which they hold Notes whether such intermediary would require receipt of instructions to participate in, or revoke their instruction to participate in, the Offer before the deadlines specified in this Offer to Purchase. The deadlines set by DTC for the submission and withdrawal of tender instructions will be earlier than the relevant deadlines specified in this Offer to Purchase.

Guaranteed Delivery Procedures

If a Holder wishes to tender Notes in the Offer and the Holder's Notes are not immediately available or the Holder cannot deliver such Notes to the Tender Agent at or prior to the Expiration Date, or the Holder cannot complete the procedures for book-entry transfer on a timely basis or if the time will not permit all required documents to reach the Tender Agent at or prior to the Expiration Date, such tender may still be effected if all of the following conditions are met:

- the tender is made by or through DTC;
- a copy of a properly completed and duly executed Notice of Guaranteed Delivery, substantially in the form provided by the Company, attached as Appendix A hereto, is received by the Tender Agent (by manually signed facsimile or email transmission, mail or hand delivery) at or prior to the Expiration Date and signed by the DTC participant tendering Notes on behalf of the Holder and bearing a guarantee signed by an Eligible Institution (as defined below), as provided below; and
- a book-entry confirmation, together with an Agent's Message, are received by the Tender Agent no later than two business days after the Expiration Date.

The Notice of Guaranteed Delivery may be transmitted in accordance with the ATOP procedures of DTC. If the ATOP procedures are used, the DTC participant need not complete and physically deliver the Notice of Guaranteed Delivery. However, the DTC participant will be bound by the terms of the relevant Offer, including the Notice of Guaranteed Delivery.

The Guaranteed Delivery Settlement Date is expected to be 13 April 2020.

“Eligible Institution” means a member firm of a registered national securities exchange or of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority, a commercial bank or trust company having an office or correspondent in the United States or an “Eligible Guarantor Institution” within the meaning of Rule 17Ad-15(a)(2) under the Exchange Act.

The Eligible Institution that completes the Notice of Guaranteed Delivery must deliver a copy of the Notice of Guaranteed Delivery to the Tender Agent and must deliver to the Tender Agent the Agent’s Message and confirmation of book-entry no later than the close of business on the second business day after the Expiration Date. Failure to do so will result in an invalid tender of the related Notes and could result in a financial loss to such Eligible Institution.

FOR THE AVOIDANCE OF DOUBT, THE DELIVERY OF NOTES TENDERED BY GUARANTEED DELIVERY PROCEDURES MUST BE MADE NO LATER THAN 5:00 P.M. NEW YORK CITY TIME/11:00 PM CENTRAL EUROPEAN SUMMER TIME ON 10 APRIL 2020, WHICH IS TWO BUSINESS DAYS FOLLOWING THE EXPIRATION DATE; PROVIDED, HOWEVER, THAT ACCRUED INTEREST WILL CEASE TO ACCRUE ON THE SETTLEMENT DATE FOR ALL NOTES ACCEPTED IN THE OFFER, INCLUDING THOSE TENDERED BY THE GUARANTEED DELIVERY PROCEDURES SET FORTH ABOVE, AND UNDER NO CIRCUMSTANCES WILL ADDITIONAL INTEREST BE PAID BY THE COMPANY AFTER THE PAYMENT DATE BY REASON OF ANY DELAY ON THE PART OF THE GUARANTEED DELIVERY PROCEDURES.

The Notice of Guaranteed Delivery must be sent to the Tender Agent. It should not be sent to the Company, the Dealer Manager or the Fiscal Agent.

Holder’s Representations, Warranties and Undertakings; the Company’s Acceptance Constitutes an Agreement

A tender of Notes under the procedures described above will constitute the tendering Holder’s acceptance of the terms and conditions of the Offer. In addition, by instructing its custodian or nominee to tender its Notes in the Offer, each such tendering Holder or direct participant tendering such Notes on its behalf, as applicable, is representing, warranting, agreeing, and undertaking, on each of the Expiration Date and the Settlement Date or, in the case of any Notes accepted for purchase pursuant to the guaranteed delivery procedures, on the Guaranteed Delivery Settlement Date, to the Company, the Tender Agent and the Dealer Manager:

(1) Subject to and effective upon acceptance for purchase of, and payment for, the Notes tendered therewith, such person irrevocably constitutes and appoints the Tender Agent as its true and lawful agent and attorney-in-fact (with full knowledge that the Tender Agent also acts as the Company’s agent) with respect to such tendered Notes, with full powers of substitution and revocation (such power of attorney being deemed to be an irrevocable power coupled with an interest) to (i) present such Notes and all evidences of transfer and authenticity to, or transfer ownership of, such Notes on the account books maintained by DTC to, or upon the order of, the Company, (ii) present such Notes for transfer of ownership on the relevant register, and (iii) receive all benefits and otherwise exercise all rights of beneficial ownership of such Notes, all in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Offer.

(2) Such person understands that tenders of Notes may be withdrawn by submission of a properly transmitted “Request Message” through ATOP to the Tender Agent at or prior to the Withdrawal Deadline. In the event of a termination of the Offer, the Notes tendered pursuant to the Offer will be credited to the account maintained at DTC from which such Notes were delivered.

(3) Such person understands that tenders of Notes pursuant to any of the procedures described in this Offer to Purchase and acceptance of such Notes by the Company will constitute a binding agreement between such person and the Company upon the terms and subject to the conditions of this Offer to Purchase. Such person understands that validly tendered Notes (or defectively tendered Notes with respect to which the Company has or has caused to be waived such defect) will be deemed to have been accepted by the Company if, as and when the Company gives oral or written notice thereof to the Tender Agent.

(4) Such person has full power and authority to tender, sell, assign and transfer the Notes tendered and that when such tendered Notes are accepted for purchase and payment by the Company, the Company will acquire good title thereto, free and clear of all liens, restrictions, charges and encumbrances and not subject to any adverse claim or right and together with all rights attached thereto. Such person will, upon request, execute and deliver any additional documents deemed by the Tender Agent or by the Company to be necessary or desirable to complete the sale, assignment, transfer and cancellation of the Notes tendered or to evidence such power and authority.

(5) Such person has received the Offer to Purchase, and has reviewed and accepted the offer and distribution restrictions, terms, conditions and other considerations of the Offer, all as described in this Offer to Purchase, and have undertaken an appropriate analysis of the implications of such Offer without reliance on the Company, the Dealer Manager or the Information Agent. All authority conferred or agreed to be conferred shall not be affected by, and shall survive, such person's death or incapacity, and any obligation of such person hereunder shall be binding upon such person's heirs, executors, administrators, trustees in bankruptcy, personal and legal representatives, successors and assigns.

(6) Such person understands that the Company will pay the Offer Price and any Accrued Interest with respect to the Notes accepted for purchase.

(7) Such person recognizes that under certain circumstances set forth in this Offer to Purchase, the Company may terminate or amend the Offer or may postpone the acceptance for payment of, or the payment for, the Notes tendered or may not be required to purchase any of the Notes tendered.

(8) Such person is not a person to whom it is unlawful to make an invitation pursuant to the Offer under applicable securities laws.

(9) Such person acknowledges that it has a net long position in the Notes being tendered within the meaning of Rule 14e-4 of the Exchange Act and the tender of such Notes complies with Rule 14e-4.

(10) Such person understands that the receipt of an Agent's Message by DTC will constitute instructions to debit the securities account of the relevant direct participant on the Settlement Date or, in the case of any Notes accepted for purchase pursuant to the guaranteed delivery procedures, on the Guaranteed Delivery Settlement Date, in respect of all of the Notes that the relevant Holder has tendered and that are accepted for purchase pursuant to the Offer, upon receipt by the clearing system of an instruction from the Tender Agent to receive such Notes for the account of the Company and against credit of the relevant amount in cash from the Company equal to the Offer Price plus any Accrued Interest, subject to the automatic revocation of those instructions on the date of any termination of the Offer (including where such Notes are not accepted for purchase by the Company) or the valid withdrawal of such tenders in the limited circumstances in which such withdrawal is permitted as set out in this Offer to Purchase.

(11) Such person understands that the delivery and surrender of any Notes is not effective, and the risk of loss of the Notes does not pass to the Tender Agent, until receipt by the Tender Agent of timely confirmation of book-entry transfer of such Notes into the Tender Agent's account at DTC and an Agent's Message properly completed and duly executed, together with all accompanying evidences of authority and any other required documents in form satisfactory to the Company. All questions as to form of all documents and the validity (including time of receipt) and acceptance of tenders and withdrawals of Notes will be determined by the Company, in its sole discretion, which determination shall be final and binding.

(12) Such person requests that any Notes representing principal amounts not tendered or not accepted for purchase be issued in the name of, and delivered by credit to, the account of DTC.

(13) Such person has observed (and will observe) the laws of all relevant jurisdictions, obtained all requisite governmental, exchange control or other required consents, complied with all requisite formalities and paid (or will pay) any issue, transfer or other taxes or requisite payments due from such person in each respect in connection with any offer or acceptance in any jurisdiction and that such person has not taken or omitted to take any action in breach of the representations or which will or may result in the Company or any other person acting in breach of the legal or regulatory requirements of any such jurisdiction in connection with the Offer or tender of Notes in connection therewith.

(14) Such person acknowledges that (except as provided in the section “—Certain U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences” of this Offer to Purchase) no information has been provided to it by the Company, the Dealer Manager, the Tender Agent or the Information Agent with regard to the tax consequences to Holders arising from the purchase of Notes and the receipt of the Offer Price and any Accrued Interest in the context of the Offer, and it hereby acknowledges that it is solely liable for any taxes and similar or related payments imposed on it under the laws of any applicable jurisdiction as a result of its participation in the Offer and agrees that it will not and does not have any right of recourse (whether by way of reimbursement, indemnity or otherwise) against the Company, the Dealer Manager, the Tender Agent, the Information Agent or any other person in respect of such taxes and payments.

(15) Such person acknowledges that none of the Company, the Dealer Manager, the Information Agent, the Tender Agent or the Fiscal Agent is making any recommendation as to whether or not you should tender Notes in response to the Offer.

(16) Such person is not a person to whom it is unlawful to make an invitation to tender pursuant to the Offer under applicable law, such person has observed (and will observe) the laws of all relevant jurisdictions in connection with its tender, and in particular, is a person who may tender its Notes in accordance with the restrictions set forth under “Offer and Distribution Restrictions” above;

(17) In any European Economic Area (EEA) Member State and in the United Kingdom (each, a “Relevant State”), such person is a qualified investor within the meaning of Regulation (EU) 2017/1129 (the “Prospectus Regulation”), in that Relevant State;

(18) It, any beneficial owner of the Notes or any other person on whose behalf it is acting, is not resident and/or located in the Republic of Italy or, if it is resident and/or located in the Republic of Italy, it is, or is tendering the Notes for purchase through, an authorized person (such as an investment firm, a bank or a financial intermediary permitted to conduct such activities in the Republic of Italy in accordance with Legislative Decree No. 58 of February 24, 1998, as amended, CONSOB Regulation No. 20307 of February 15, 2018, as amended, and Legislative Decree No. 385 of September 1, 1993, as amended) and in compliance with any other applicable laws and regulations and with any requirements imposed by CONSOB or any other Italian authority.

(19) Such person is not a resident and/or located in the United Kingdom or, if it is a resident and/or located in the United Kingdom, such person is a person who has professional experience in matters relating to investments falling within Article 19(5) of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (Financial Promotion) Order 2005 or a person to whom the Offer may be made in circumstances in which Section 21 of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 does not apply.

(20) Such person acknowledges that, effective upon the acceptance for purchase of, and payment for, the principal amount of Notes tendered in accordance with the terms and subject to the conditions of the Offer, such person will have agreed to (i) irrevocably sell, assign and transfer to the Company, or upon the Company’s order, all right, title and interest in and to all of the Notes tendered and accepted for purchase pursuant to the terms of the Offer, (ii) to waive any and all other rights with respect to such Notes (including, without limitation, any existing or past defaults and their consequences in respect of the Notes) and (iii) to release and discharge the Company from any and all claims you may have now, or may have in the future, arising out of, or related to, the Notes, including, without limitation, any claims that such person is entitled to receive additional principal or interest payments with respect to such Notes or to participate in any repurchase, redemption or defeasance of the Notes.

(21) Such person is not (i) a person that is, or is 50% or more owned or controlled by a person that is, described or designated as a “specially designated national” or “blocked person” in the most current U.S. Treasury Department list of “Specially Designated National and Blocked Persons” (which can be found at: <http://sdnsearch.ofac.treas.gov/>); or (ii) currently the subject or in violation, of any sanctions (other than solely by virtue of their inclusion in the most current Sectoral Sanctions Identifications list or any other list with similar effect), under (x) the laws and regulations that have been officially published and are administered or enforced by the U.S. Government (including, without limitation, the Office of Foreign Assets Control of the U.S. Department of the Treasury or the U.S. Department of State), or any enabling legislation or executive order relating thereto; or (y) any equivalent sanctions or measures officially published and imposed by the European Union, any member state of the European Union, Her Majesty’s Treasury or the United Nations including sanctions imposed against certain states, organisations and individuals under the European Union’s Common Foreign & Security Policy.

A custodian or nominee, by delivering, or causing to be delivered, the tendered Notes and the completed Agent's Message to the Tender Agent is representing and warranting that the underlying Holder, as owner of such Notes, has represented, warranted and agreed to each of the above. If you are unable to give the foregoing representations, warranties and undertakings, you should contact the Dealer Manager or the Tender Agent.

Our acceptance for payment of Notes tendered under the Offer will constitute a binding agreement between you and us upon the terms and conditions of the Offer described in the Offer to Purchase.

Compliance with "Short Tendering" Rule

It is a violation of Rule 14e-4 (promulgated under the Exchange Act) for a person, directly or indirectly, to tender Notes in a partial tender offer for his own account unless the person so tendering their Notes (i) has a net long position equal to or greater than the aggregate principal amount of the Notes being tendered and (ii) will cause such Notes to be delivered in accordance with the terms of the Offer. Rule 14e-4 provides a similar restriction applicable to the tender or guarantee of a tender on behalf of another person.

A tender of Notes under any of the procedures described above will constitute a binding agreement between the tendering Holder and the Company upon the terms and subject to the conditions of the Offer, including the tendering Holder's acceptance of the terms and conditions of the Offer, as well as the tendering Holder's representation and warranty that (i) such Holder has net long position in the Notes being tendered pursuant to such Offer within the meaning of Rule 14e-4 under the Exchange Act and (ii) the tender of such Notes complies with Rule 14e-4.

Expiration Date; Extensions; Amendments; Termination

The Offer will expire at 5:00 p.m., New York City time/11:00 p.m., Central European Summer time, on 8 April 2020, unless extended or earlier terminated.

The Company, in its sole discretion, may extend the Expiration Date with respect to the Offer for any purpose, including to permit the satisfaction or, where possible, waiver of the conditions of the Offer. All references to the Expiration Date in this Offer to Purchase are to the Expiration Date, as such date may be extended or terminated.

Any required announcement relating to the extension, amendment or termination of the Offer, or the Company's acceptance for the Notes, shall be made as soon as practicable, and in the case of an extension of the Expiration Date, no later than 9:00 a.m., New York City time/3:00 p.m. Central European Summer time, on the next business day after the previously-scheduled Expiration Date. Announcements will be published via a press release on a widely disseminated news service, delivery of notices to DTC for communication to persons shown in the records of DTC as direct participants holding interests in the Notes and such other means of widespread dissemination we deem appropriate. Without limiting the manner in which we may choose to make such announcement, we will not, unless otherwise required by law, have any obligation to advertise or otherwise communicate any such announcement other than by issuing a press release, delivery of notices to DTC for communication to persons shown in the records of DTC as direct participants holding interests in the Notes and such additional means of widespread dissemination we deem appropriate.

The Company expressly reserves the right, subject to applicable law, to:

- delay accepting the Notes, extend the Expiration Date or terminate the Offer at any time and not accept the Notes; and
- amend, modify or waive at any time, or from time to time, the terms of the Offer in any respect, including, by waiving, where possible, any conditions to consummation of such Offer.

If the Company exercises any such right, the Company will give written notice thereof to the Tender Agent and will make a public announcement thereof as promptly as practicable and, in the case of an extension of the Expiration Date, no later than 9:00 a.m., New York City time/ 3:00 p.m. Central European Summer time on the next business day after the previously-scheduled Expiration Date. In the case of a termination, all Notes theretofore tendered pursuant to the Offer and not accepted for purchase will be returned promptly to the tendering Holders thereof.

The minimum period during which the Offer will remain open following material changes in the terms of the such Offer or in the information concerning such Offer will depend upon the facts and circumstances of such change, including the materiality of the changes. If any of the terms of the Offer are amended in a manner determined by the Company to constitute a material change adversely affecting any Holder, the Company (i) will promptly disclose any such amendment in a manner reasonably calculated to inform Holders of such amendment, (ii) may extend the Offer for a period that the Company deems appropriate, subject to applicable law, depending upon the significance of the amendment and the manner of disclosure to Holders, if the Offer would otherwise expire during such period, and (iii) subject to applicable law, may extend withdrawal rights for a period that the Company deems appropriate to allow the relevant tendering Holders a reasonable opportunity to respond to such amendment.

In the event of any change to the Offer Price or any other material change to an Offer, the Company will publish an announcement by means of a press release on a widely disseminated news service, delivery of notices to DTC for communications to persons shown in the records of DTC as direct participants holding interests in the Notes at least five business days prior to the expiration of the Offer and at least three business days prior to expiration of any other material change to the Offer, in each case at or prior to 9:00 a.m. New York City time/3:00 p.m., Central European Summer time, on the first day of such five or three business day period, as applicable.

Any amendment to the Offer will apply to all Notes tendered in the Offer.

Transfer Taxes

The Company will pay all transfer taxes applicable to the purchase and transfer of Notes pursuant to this Offer to Purchase, except if the payment of the Offer Price or Accrued Interest is being made to, or if Notes that are not tendered or not purchased in the Offer is to be registered or issued in the name of, any person other than the Holder of the Notes, the DTC participant in whose name the Notes are held on the books of DTC, or if a transfer tax is imposed for any reason other than the purchase of Notes under the Offer, then the amount of any such transfer tax (whether imposed on the Holder or any other person) will be payable by the tendering Holder. If satisfactory evidence of payment of that tax or exemption from payment is not submitted, then the amount of that transfer tax will be deducted from the Offer Price otherwise payable to the tendering Holder.

Taxation

Holders should consult their own tax adviser as to the particular tax consequences of a sale of Notes upon the terms of this Offer to Purchase. Holders shall be solely liable for any taxes or related payments imposed upon them under the laws of any jurisdiction as a result of their participation in the Offer to Purchase and shall have no right of recourse (whether by way of reimbursement, indemnity or otherwise) against the Company, the Dealer Manager, the Tender Agent or any other person in respect of any such taxes or payments.

Acceptance of Notes for Purchase; Payment for Notes

Upon the terms and subject to the conditions of the Offer, the Company will accept for purchase all Notes validly tendered (or defectively tendered, if the Company has waived such defect) and not validly withdrawn. Only Notes that are validly tendered in accordance with the procedures set forth herein (or if defectively tendered, if the Company has waived such defect) and not validly withdrawn at or prior to the Expiration Date will, upon the terms and subject to the conditions hereof, be eligible for acceptance by the Company and, if so accepted, payment. The Company will promptly pay for Notes accepted for purchase on the Settlement Date or in the case of Notes accepted for purchase pursuant to the guaranteed delivery procedures, on the Guaranteed Delivery Settlement Date. In all cases, payment for Notes accepted for purchase pursuant to the Offer will be made only after confirmation of book-entry transfer thereof. No payments will be made with respect to any Notes if the Offer is terminated.

For purposes of the Offer, the Company will be deemed to have accepted for purchase validly tendered Notes (or defectively tendered Notes with respect to which the Company has waived such defect) if, as and when the Company gives oral (promptly confirmed in writing) or written notice thereof to the Tender Agent. With respect to tendered Notes that are to be returned to Holders, such Notes will be credited to the account maintained at DTC from which such Notes were delivered promptly following the Expiration Date or termination of the Offer.

Upon the terms and subject to the conditions of the Offer, the Company will accept for purchase, and pay for, Notes validly tendered pursuant to the Offer and not validly withdrawn upon the satisfaction or, where possible, waiver of the General Conditions specified under “—Conditions of the Offer.” The Company will promptly pay for all Notes accepted for purchase pursuant to the Offer.

The Company will pay for Notes accepted for purchase in the Offer by depositing such payment in cash with DTC, which will act as agent for the tendering Holders for the purpose of receiving payment of the Offer Price and Accrued Interest and transmitting such payment to Holders. Upon the terms and subject to the conditions of the Offer, delivery by the Company to DTC of the Offer Price with respect to the purchased Notes will be made on the Settlement Date or in the case of Notes accepted for purchase pursuant to the guaranteed delivery procedures, on the Guaranteed Delivery Settlement Date.

If, for any reason (including if the Company chooses to do so), acceptance for purchase of, or payment for, validly tendered Notes pursuant to the Offer is delayed, or the Company is unable to accept for purchase or to pay for validly tendered Notes pursuant to the Offer, then the Tender Agent may, nevertheless, on behalf of the Company, retain the tendered Notes (which may not then be withdrawn), without prejudice to the rights of the Company as described under “—Expiration Date; Extensions; Amendments; Termination” and “—Conditions of the Offer” above and “—Withdrawal of Tenders” below, but subject to Rule 14e-1(c) under the Exchange Act, which requires that the Company pay the applicable consideration offered or return the Notes tendered promptly after the termination or withdrawal of an Offer.

If any tendered Notes are not accepted for purchase for any reason pursuant to the terms and conditions of the Offer Documents, such Notes will be credited to the account maintained at DTC, designated by the applicable participant therein who delivered such securities, promptly following the Expiration Date or termination of the Offer.

Holders of Notes tendered and accepted for purchase pursuant to the Offer will be entitled to Accrued Interest, which will be paid on the Settlement Date or in the case of Notes accepted for purchase pursuant to the guaranteed delivery procedures, on the Guaranteed Delivery Settlement Date. Accrued Interest will cease to accrue on the Settlement Date for all Notes accepted in the offer. Under no circumstances will any additional interest be payable because of any delay by DTC in the transmission of funds to the Holders of purchased Notes or otherwise or any delay on the part of the guaranteed delivery procedures.

The Company may (subject to applicable law) transfer or assign, in whole or from time to time in part, to one or more of its affiliates or any third party the right to purchase all or any of the Notes tendered pursuant to the Offer, but any such transfer or assignment will not relieve the Company of its obligations under the Offer and will in no way prejudice the rights of tendering Holders to receive payment for Notes validly tendered and not validly withdrawn and accepted for payment pursuant to the Offer.

The Company expects to publish a press release promptly following the Expiration Date announcing the amount of the Notes accepted for purchase.

Withdrawal of Tenders

Tenders of Notes may be validly withdrawn at or prior to the Withdrawal Deadline but may not be validly withdrawn after such time, other than as set forth below or to the extent required by applicable law.

If the Offer is extended, the Withdrawal Deadline with respect to the Offer will be extended to the earlier of (i) the Expiration Date (as extended) and (ii) the tenth (10th) business day after the Commencement Date. The Notes may also be validly withdrawn in the event the Offer has not been consummated within sixty (60) business days after the Commencement Date.

For a withdrawal of tendered Notes held through DTC to be effective, a properly transmitted “Request Message” through ATOP must be received by the Tender Agent at or prior to the Withdrawal Deadline. Any such notice of withdrawal must:

- specify the name of the participant in the book-entry transfer facility whose name appears on the security position listing as the owner of such Notes;

- contain the description of the Notes to be withdrawn and the aggregate principal amount represented by such Notes; and
- specify the name and number of the account at DTC to be credited with the withdrawn Notes.

In addition, the Holder must otherwise comply with DTC procedures.

If you tendered your Notes through a custodian or nominee and wish to withdraw your Notes, you will need to make arrangement for withdrawal with your custodian or nominee. Your ability to withdraw the tender of your Notes will depend upon the terms of the arrangements you have made with your custodian or nominee and, if your custodian or nominee is not the direct participant of DTC, tendering those Notes, the arrangement between your custodian or nominee and such direct participant of DTC, including any arrangements involving intermediaries between your custodian or nominee and such direct participant.

The Tender Agent will return to tendering Holders all Notes in respect of which it has received valid and timely withdrawal instructions, promptly after it receives such instructions.

Withdrawal of Notes may only be accomplished in accordance with the foregoing procedures.

Holders may not rescind their withdrawal of Notes. Any Notes validly withdrawn will thereafter be deemed not validly tendered for purposes of the Offer; provided, however, that withdrawn Notes may be re-tendered by again following one of the appropriate procedures described herein at any time prior to the Expiration Date.

If the Company extends the Offer or is delayed in its acceptance for purchase of Notes or is unable to purchase Notes pursuant to the Offer for any reason, then, without prejudice to the rights of the Company hereunder, tendered Notes may be retained by the Tender Agent on behalf of the Company and may not be withdrawn (subject to rule 14c-1(c) under the Exchange Act, which requires that an offeror pay the consideration offered or return the securities deposited by or on behalf of the investor promptly after the termination or withdrawal of a tender offer), except as otherwise provided in this section.

All questions as to the validity, form and eligibility (including time of receipt) of notices of withdrawal will be determined by the Company, in its sole discretion (and this determination shall be final and binding). None of the Company, the Dealer Manager, the Tender Agent, the Fiscal Agent or any other person will be under any duty to give notification of any defects or irregularities in any notice of withdrawal, or incur any liability for failure to give any such notification.

Other Matters

Tendering Holders of Notes purchased in the Offer will not be obligated to pay brokerage fees or commissions to the Dealer Manager, the Tender Agent, the Information Agent, the Fiscal Agent or the Company or to pay transfer taxes (except as indicated above in “—Transfer Taxes”) with respect to the purchase of their Notes. If you hold your Notes through a broker, dealer, commercial bank, trust company or other nominee, you should ask your broker, dealer, commercial bank, trust company or other nominee if you will be charged a fee to tender your Notes through such broker, dealer, commercial bank, trust company or other nominee.

All questions as to the form of documents and validity, eligibility (including time of receipt), acceptance for payment and any withdrawal of tendered Notes will be determined by the Company, in its sole discretion, and its determination will be final and binding on all Holders. The Company reserves the absolute right to reject any and all tenders of Notes that it determines are not in proper form or for which the acceptance for payment or payment may, in the opinion of its counsel, be unlawful. The Company also reserves the absolute right, in its sole discretion, subject to applicable law, to waive or amend any of the conditions of the Offer or any defect or irregularity in the tender or withdrawal of Notes of any particular Holder, whether or not similar conditions, defects or irregularities are waived in the case of other Holders.

The Company’s interpretation of the terms and conditions of the Offer will be final and binding on all Holders. Any defect or irregularity in connection with tenders of Notes must be cured within such time as the Company determines, unless waived by the Company. Tenders of Notes will not be deemed to have been made until all defects or irregularities have been waived by the Company or cured. None of the Company, the Dealer Manager, the Tender Agent, the Information Agent or any other person will be under any duty to give notification of any defects or irregularities in tenders or will incur any liability for failure to give any such notification.

There are no appraisal or other similar statutory rights available to Holders in connection with the Offer.

CERTAIN U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES

The following is a summary of certain U.S. federal income tax considerations of the Offer that may be relevant to a U.S. Holder and a Non-U.S. Holder (as defined below). The summary does not purport to be a comprehensive description of all tax considerations that may be relevant to any particular investor. It does not address considerations that may be relevant to investors subject to special tax rules, such as entities taxed as partnerships or partners therein, dealers in securities or currencies, certain financial institutions, tax-exempt entities, life insurance companies, persons holding Notes as a part of a hedging, integrated, conversion or constructive sale transaction or a straddle, traders in securities that elect to use a mark-to-market method of accounting for their securities holdings, or investors whose functional currency is not the U.S. dollar. Moreover, this discussion does not address any tax consequences relating to the alternative minimum tax or the Medicare tax on investment income, any U.S. federal tax consequences other than U.S. federal income tax consequences (such as the estate or gift tax) or any U.S. state, local and non U.S. tax consequences. The discussion below is based upon the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the “Code”), and regulations, rulings and judicial decisions thereunder as of the date hereof, and such authorities may be repealed, revoked or modified so as to result in U.S. federal income tax consequences different from those discussed below.

As used herein, a “U.S. Holder” of a Note means a beneficial owner that is, for U.S. federal income tax purposes, an individual who is a citizen or resident of the United States, a corporation created or organized in or under the laws of the United States or any political subdivision thereof, or any other person that is subject to U.S. federal income tax on a net income basis in respect of its investment in the Notes. A “Non-U.S. Holder” means a beneficial owner of the Notes that is not a U.S. Holder.

The discussion of U.S. federal income tax consequences below is based on, and assumes that Holders have treated the Notes in the manner set forth in, the tax disclosure under the heading “Taxation—United States Federal Income Taxation” in the Offering Memorandum for the Notes. The discussion below therefore assumes that the Notes are treated as equity for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

Tendering Holders

Sales of the Notes pursuant to the Offer by U.S. Holders may be treated either as a sale of those Notes by the tendering Holder or as a distribution in respect of stock held by the tendering Holder, depending upon the circumstances as of the time the Notes are tendered. A tender of Notes will be treated as a sale if it (i) results in a “complete termination” of the tendering Holder’s interest in stock of the Company, or (ii) is “not essentially equivalent to a dividend” with respect to the Holder, each within the meaning of Section 302(b) of the Code. The sale of tendered Notes pursuant to an Offer will be treated as “not essentially equivalent to a dividend”, and hence as a sale, if it results in a “meaningful reduction” in the tendering Holder’s proportionate interest in the equity of the Company, based on the relevant facts applicable to the Holder. The Internal Revenue Service has indicated that (i) any reduction in ownership of nonvoting preferred shares is a “meaningful reduction” in a stockholder’s interest, and therefore not essentially equivalent to a dividend, if the holder owns no common stock, and (ii) even a small reduction in the percentage interest held by a stockholder in a publicly held corporation will be treated as a sale if the stockholder’s percentage stock ownership is minimal and the stockholder exercises no control over the corporation. The Notes have terms that differ from nonvoting preferred shares, but they are similar in many significant respects, including the lack of voting rights and the lack of a right to share in the Company’s earnings or assets. They may therefore be subject to similar rules. In determining whether either of these tests has been met, equity interests in the Company considered to be owned by the tendering Holder by reason of certain constructive ownership rules set forth in the Code, as well as equity interests directly or indirectly owned, must generally be taken into account. These constructive ownership rules can result in a tendering Holder being considered to own equity interests in the Company held by certain affiliated entities. Hence, the constructive ownership rules can cause a tender that otherwise appears to satisfy one of the tests described above nevertheless to be treated as a distribution.

While each U.S. Holder’s situation is different, it is expected, subject to the considerations described above, that most portfolio Holders of Notes whose Notes are purchased in whole or in part in an Offer will be able to conclude that the transaction qualifies for sale treatment for U.S. federal income tax purposes. However, U.S. Holders should consult their tax advisors as to whether a tender will be treated as a sale or a distribution given their particular circumstances. Discussed below are the general consequences to a U.S. Holder depending on whether the transaction is treated as a sale or a distribution treated as a dividend.

Sale. If the sale of a U.S. Holder's tendered Notes pursuant to the Offer is treated as a sale under the rules described above, the U.S. Holder generally will recognize U.S.-source gain or loss in an amount equal to the difference between the amount realized pursuant to the Offer and the U.S. Holder's tax basis in the Notes. A U.S. Holder's tax basis in the tendered Notes will generally equal a ratable portion of such holder's adjusted tax basis in all of the Notes it holds. A U.S. Holder's tax basis in all of the Notes it holds generally will equal the amount it paid for the Notes.

Gain or loss on the Notes will generally be long-term capital gain or loss if the U.S. Holder has held the Notes for more than one year. The deductibility of capital losses is subject to limitations. Special U.S. federal income tax rules apply to U.S. persons owning shares of a "passive foreign investment company," or "PFIC." If the Company is treated as a PFIC for any year during which a U.S. Holder owns the Notes, the U.S. Holder may be subject to adverse tax consequences upon a sale, exchange, or other disposition of the Notes, including pursuant to the Offer. Based on audited consolidated financial statements, the Company believes that it was not a PFIC for U.S. federal income tax purposes with respect to its 2019 taxable year. In addition, based on a review of the Company's consolidated financial statements and the Company's current expectations regarding the value and nature of its assets and the sources and nature of its income, the Company does not expect to become a PFIC for the 2020 taxable year. U.S. Holders should consult their tax advisors with respect to the Company's PFIC status.

U.S. Holders generally will not be required to account separately for accrued interest realized pursuant to the Offer, and instead such amounts will be treated as part of the amount realized for purposes of determining gain or loss pursuant to the Offer.

Distribution. If the sale of a U.S. Holder's tendered Notes in an Offer is treated as a distribution to the U.S. Holder for tax purposes, the distribution will generally be treated as dividends to the extent that the distribution is paid out of the Company's current or accumulated earnings and profits, as determined under U.S. federal income tax principles. Because the Company does not expect to maintain calculations of its earnings and profits under U.S. federal income tax principles, it is expected that any such distributions generally will be reported as dividends. Payments received by a U.S. Holder that are treated as dividends generally will be foreign-source income and will not be eligible for the dividends-received deduction generally allowed to corporate U.S. Holders.

Information Reporting and Backup Withholding

A U.S. Holder that tenders its Notes pursuant to the Offer may be subject to backup withholding unless such U.S. Holder (i) comes within certain exempt categories and, if required, demonstrates this fact, or (ii) in the case of backup withholding, provides a taxpayer identification number and certifies that it has not lost its exemption from backup withholding. The amount of backup withholding will be allowed as a credit against a Holder's U.S. federal income tax liability and may entitle such a Holder to a refund provided the required information is furnished to the Internal Revenue Service.

Non-U.S. Holders

A Non-U.S. Holder generally will not be subject to U.S. federal income tax on a tender of Notes pursuant to the Offer, by withholding or otherwise. A Non-U.S. Holder may be required to comply with certification and identification procedures in order to establish its exemption from information reporting and backup withholding.

DEALER MANAGER, INFORMATION AGENT AND TENDER AGENT

The Company has retained CACIB to act as Dealer Manager on behalf of the Company in connection with the Offer, and the Company has agreed to pay the Dealer Manager a customary fee in connection therewith. As a result, the Dealer Manager may own certain of the Company's securities, including the Notes, and may tender Notes in the Offer for its own account.

The Company has retained Global Bondholder Services Corporation to act as Information Agent in connection with the Offer. The Information Agent will assist Holders that request assistance in connection with the Offer, and may request that brokers, dealers and other nominee Holders forward materials relating to the Offer to beneficial owners. The Company has agreed to pay the Information Agent a customary fee for such service. The Company has also agreed to reimburse the Information Agent for its reasonable out-of-pocket expenses and to indemnify the Information Agent against certain liabilities in connection with the Offer, including liabilities arising under the federal securities laws.

Any Holder or beneficial owner that has questions concerning tender procedures with respect to the Offer should contact the Information Agent at the address and telephone number set forth on the back cover of this Offer to Purchase.

The Company will pay brokerage houses and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries the reasonable out-of-pocket expenses incurred by them in forwarding copies of this Offer to Purchase and related documents to the beneficial owners of the Notes and in handling or forwarding tenders of Notes by their customers.

None of the Dealer Manager, the Tender Agent or the Information Agent (or any of their respective directors, officers, employees or affiliates) assumes any responsibility for the accuracy or completeness of the information contained in this document or for our failure to disclose events that may have occurred and may affect the significance or accuracy of such information.

None of the Dealer Manager, the Tender Agent or the Information Agent (or any of their respective directors, officers, employees or affiliates) makes any representation or recommendation whatsoever regarding the Offer or any recommendation as to whether Holders should tender Notes in the Offer or otherwise participate in the Offer.

OTHER MATTERS

The Offer is not being made to (nor will tenders of Notes be accepted from or on behalf of) Holders of Notes in any jurisdiction in which the making or acceptance of the Offer would not be in compliance with the laws of such jurisdiction. If the Company becomes aware of any jurisdiction in which the making of the Offer or the tender of Notes would not be in compliance with applicable law, the Company may, in its sole discretion, make an effort to comply with any such law. If, after such effort, the Company cannot comply with any such law, the Offer will not be made to the Holder of Notes residing in such jurisdiction.
