Government of Jamaica

Invitation for Offers to Tender for Cash the Notes Listed Below

The Government of Jamaica (“Jamaica”) hereby invites holders to submit offers (the “Offers”) to tender for cash the notes set forth in the table below (collectively, the “Old Notes”, and each series thereof a “series” of Old Notes), upon the terms and subject to the conditions described herein (the “Invitation”). Each offer to tender any series of Old Notes is made as a separate, independent offer. The Invitation will be conditioned upon, among other things, the issuance and sale for cash of one or more new series of notes (collectively, the “New Notes,” and the issuance and sale of the New Notes, the “New Notes Offering”), in an amount and on terms and conditions acceptable to Jamaica (the “Financing Condition”). The maximum purchase price is the maximum amount to be paid by Jamaica for the outstanding original principal amount of Old Notes validly tendered and accepted for purchase by Jamaica pursuant to this Invitation (i.e., the aggregate Purchase Price (as defined below) multiplied by the applicable Amortization Factor (as defined below)), not including interest accrued and unpaid thereon (the “Maximum Purchase Price”). The Maximum Purchase Price will be determined by Jamaica in its sole discretion.

The Invitation is not conditioned upon any minimum participation of any series of Old Notes. Jamaica reserves the right, in its sole discretion, not to accept any or all Offers, to modify the Purchase Price for any or all series of Old Notes upon the terms and conditions described herein, or to terminate the Invitation for any reason and upon the terms and conditions described herein.

Jamaica will pay per U.S.$1,000 original principal amount of each series of Old Notes that are accepted pursuant to the Invitation, a purchase price equal to the applicable fixed price indicated in the in the rightmost column in the table below (the “Purchase Price”), multiplied by the Amortization Factor, if applicable, plus, in each case, accrued and unpaid interest on such Old Notes from the applicable last regular payment of interest to (but excluding) the Settlement Date (“Accrued Interest”).

(2) In addition, holders with Old Notes accepted pursuant to the Invitation will be paid Accrued Interest on such Old Notes.

(3) This amount reflects the outstanding original principal amount of the 7.625% 2025 Notes multiplied by an amortization factor of 0.66666667 (the “Amortization Factor”).

(4) The amount to be paid per U.S.$1,000 Original Principal Amount of 7.625% 2025 Notes that are accepted pursuant to the Offer will be U.S.$1,020.00 multiplied by the Amortization Factor.

THE INVITATION WILL BEGIN ON THURSDAY, OCTOBER 19, 2023 AND, UNLESS EXTENDED OR EARLIER TERMINATED, THE INVITATION AND WITHDRAWAL RIGHTS WILL EXPIRE AT 5:00 P.M., NEW YORK CITY TIME ON FRIDAY, OCTOBER 27, 2023. SEE “THE INVITATION—PROCEDURES FOR SUBMITTING OFFERS FOR OLD NOTES”.

If the aggregate Purchase Price for all validly tendered Old Notes, multiplied by the Amortization Factor, if applicable (the “Tendered Principal Purchase Price”) would exceed the Maximum Purchase Price, Jamaica will, in its sole discretion, select one or more series of Old Notes to be prorated on the basis of the same or different proration factors.

Offers must be submitted through a direct participant in The Depository Trust Company, Inc. (“DTC”), Euroclear Bank S.A./N.V. (“Euroclear”) or Clearstream Banking Luxembourg, société anonyme (“Clearstream, Luxembourg”). Old Notes tendered pursuant to the Invitation may only be withdrawn in accordance with the procedures specified under “The Invitation—Irrevocability; Withdrawal Rights,” prior to the Expiration Deadline, but not thereafter. Jamaica is making the Invitation only in those jurisdictions where it is legal to do so. See “Certain Legal Restrictions” and “Jurisdictional Restrictions.”

CERTAIN OFFER MATTERS

In making your decision whether to submit an Offer, you must rely on your own examination of Jamaica and the information contained in this Invitation, including your own determination of the merits and risks involved in participating in the Invitation. No United States federal or state securities commission or regulatory authority has confirmed the accuracy or determined the adequacy of this Invitation. Any representation to the contrary is a criminal offense.

Except for the fee payable to the Dealer Managers, Jamaica will not pay any commissions or other remuneration to any broker, dealer, salesman or other person for soliciting tenders of Old Notes. Tendering holders will not be obligated to pay the fees of the Dealer Managers and the Information and Tender Agent identified on the inside back cover of this document (the "Information and Tender Agent"); however, such holders may be required to pay a fee or commission to their broker or intermediary through whom the Old Notes are tendered.

Questions and requests for assistance may be directed to the Dealer Managers and the Information and Tender Agent at their respective addresses and telephone numbers set forth on the inside back cover of this document. Additional copies of this document and related materials may be obtained free of charge from the Dealer Managers and the Information and Tender Agent. Jamaica is furnishing this document solely for your use in the context of the Invitation. Jamaica accepts responsibility for the information it has provided in this document.

Certain direct and indirect affiliates of Jamaica hold Old Notes. These entities may decide to participate in the Offers and tender any or all Old Notes they hold.

No dealer, salesperson or other person has been authorized to give any information or to make any representations other than those contained in this Invitation and, if given or made, such information or representations must not be relied upon as having been authorized by Jamaica or the Dealer Managers, and none of Jamaica or the Dealer Managers takes any responsibility for information that others may give you. This Invitation does not constitute an offer to buy or a solicitation of an offer to sell any securities in any jurisdiction to any person to whom it is unlawful to make such offer or solicitation in such jurisdiction. Neither the delivery of this Invitation nor any purchase, sale or tender made shall, under any circumstances, create any implication that the information in this Invitation is correct as of any time subsequent to the date hereof or thereof or that there has been no change in the affairs of Jamaica since such dates.

None of Jamaica, the Dealer Managers or the Information and Tender Agent has expressed any opinion as to whether the terms of the Invitation are fair. None of Jamaica, the Dealer Managers or the Information and Tender Agent makes any recommendation that you Offer Old Notes or refrain from doing so pursuant to the Invitation, and no one has been authorized by any of them to make any such recommendation. You must make your own decision as to whether to tender Old Notes or refrain from doing so and, if so, the principal amount of Old Notes to tender.

Holders should note that Jamaica will cancel the Old Notes purchased pursuant to the Invitation following the Settlement Date (as defined herein). Accordingly, this transaction will reduce the aggregate principal amount of Old Notes that otherwise might trade in the public market, which could adversely affect the liquidity and market value of remaining Old Notes of the affected series that Jamaica does not acquire pursuant to the Invitation.

You must comply with all laws that apply to you in any place in which you possess this Invitation. You must also obtain any consents or approvals that you need in order to accept this Invitation and tender Old Notes. None of Jamaica, the Dealer Managers or the Information and Tender Agent is responsible for your compliance with these legal requirements. See "Jurisdictional Restrictions."

Jamaica has prepared this Invitation and is solely responsible for its contents. You are responsible for making your own examination of Jamaica and your own assessment of the merits and risks of accepting the Invitation and tendering Old Notes. By tendering your Old Notes, you will be deemed to have acknowledged that:

- you have reviewed this Invitation;
- you have had an opportunity to request and review any additional information that you may need; and
- none of the Dealer Managers or the Information and Tender Agent is responsible for, or is making any representation to you concerning, the accuracy or completeness of this Invitation.

Jamaica and the Dealer Managers are not providing you with any legal, business, tax or other advice in this Invitation. You should consult with your own advisors as needed to assist you in making your investment decision and to advise you whether you are legally permitted to accept the Invitation and tender Old Notes for cash.

In the United Kingdom, this communication is only being distributed to and is only directed to persons who (i) have professional experience in matters relating to investments, being investment professionals falling within Article 19(5) the Order, (ii) are persons falling within Article 49(2)(a) to (d) (“high net worth companies, unincorporated associations etc.”) of the Order, (iii) are outside the United Kingdom, or (iv) are persons to whom an invitation or inducement to engage in investment activity (within the meaning of section 21 of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000) may otherwise lawfully be communicated or caused to be communicated (all such persons together being referred to as “relevant persons”). The Old Notes are only available to, and any invitation, offer or agreement to subscribe, purchase or otherwise acquire such Old Notes will be engaged in only with, relevant persons. Any person who is not a relevant person should not act or rely on this document or any of its contents.

As used in this Invitation, “Business Day” means any day other than a Saturday, a Sunday or a legal holiday or a day on which banking institutions or trust companies are authorized or obligated by law to close in New York City. Jurisdiction; Enforcement of Judgments

Jamaica is a foreign sovereign government. Foreign sovereign governments are generally immune from lawsuits and from the enforcement of judgments under United States law. Consequently, it may be difficult for you or a fiscal agent to obtain or realize upon judgments of courts in the United States against Jamaica.

Foreign sovereign governments, however, may waive this immunity and limited exceptions to this immunity are set forth in the US Foreign Sovereign Immunities Act of 1976 (the “Immunities Act”).

Jamaica reserves the right to plead sovereign immunity under the Immunities Act with respect to actions brought against it under United States federal securities laws or any state securities laws. In the absence of a waiver of immunity by Jamaica with respect to such actions, it would not be possible to obtain a US judgment in such action unless a court were to determine that Jamaica is not entitled to sovereign immunity under the Immunities Act with respect to that action. Even if you obtained a US judgment in any such suit, you may not be able to enforce the judgment in Jamaica. Moreover, you may not be able to enforce a judgment obtained under the Immunities Act against Jamaica’s property located in the United States except under the limited circumstances specified in the Immunities Act.

Jamaica has designated and appointed Cogency Global Inc., presently located in New York, New York, as its authorized agent, upon whom process may be served in any legal suit, action or proceeding based on the Invitation that a holder of Old Notes may institute in any state or federal or state court in the Borough of Manhattan,

The City of New York, United States. Jamaica irrevocably agrees not to claim and irrevocably waives any sovereign or other immunity to the fullest extent permitted by law (including, without limitation, the Immunities Act).

A judgment obtained in New York against Jamaica may be sued upon in the courts of Jamaica as a valid cause of action, and in such case, a Jamaican court, subject to certain conditions, may grant a judgment in Jamaica without any re-trial or re-examination of the merits of the original action. Jamaica is also subject to suit in competent courts in Jamaica. Section 20(4) of the Crown Proceedings Act of Jamaica provides that no execution or attachment shall be issued by any court in Jamaica for the purpose of enforcing payment by Jamaica of any money or costs. Execution or attachment means a legal process whereby the debtor's property is taken under an order of the court and may be sold to satisfy the judgment debt. No such order can be made against Jamaica. Instead, the Crown Proceedings Act provides that where in any civil proceedings by or against Jamaica, any order (including an order for costs) is made by any court in Jamaica in favor of any person against Jamaica, the proper officer of the court shall, on an application and after taxing of costs, issue a certificate to such person which may be served upon the Attorney General of Jamaica. If the order provides for the payment of money or costs, the Ministry of Finance and the Public Service shall pay the amount due to such person. It is possible that the courts of Jamaica may not enforce a judgment of a foreign court against Jamaica on any of the following grounds; namely: (i) that the judgment is contrary to public policy in Jamaica; or (ii) that the foreign court did not have jurisdiction because Jamaica did not submit to its jurisdiction or did not enter any appearance to the law suit; or (iii) the judgment was obtained by fraud; or (iv) the judgment was an order for specific performance or injunction; (v) the judgement was not final or conclusive; or (vi) the court is not satisfied that the judgment was for a fixed or determinable sum (including an award of damages).

Governing Law

This Invitation and any Offers shall be governed by and interpreted in accordance with the laws of the State of New York, United States of America.

CERTAIN LEGAL RESTRICTIONS

The distribution of materials relating to this Invitation, and the transactions contemplated by the Invitation, may be restricted by law in certain jurisdictions. The Invitation is made only in those jurisdictions where it is legal to do so. The Invitation is void in all jurisdictions where it is prohibited. If materials relating to the Invitation come into your possession, you are required to inform yourself of and to observe all of these restrictions. The materials relating to the Invitation do not constitute, and may not be used in connection with, an offer or solicitation in any place where offers or solicitations are not permitted by law. This Invitation does not constitute an offer to buy or a solicitation of an offer to sell any securities in any jurisdiction to any person to whom it is unlawful to make such offer or solicitation in such jurisdiction. In any jurisdiction in which the Invitation is required to be made by a licensed broker or dealer and in which any Dealer Manager or any of its affiliates is so licensed, it shall be deemed to be made by the Dealer Managers or such affiliates on behalf of Jamaica. Beneficial owners who may lawfully participate in the Invitation in accordance with the terms thereof are referred to as “holders.” See “—Jurisdictional Restrictions.”

RISK FACTORS

In deciding whether to participate in the Invitation, each holder should consider carefully, in addition to the other information contained in this document, the following:

Limited Trading Market; Increased Volatility. To the extent that Old Notes are purchased by Jamaica pursuant to the Invitation, the trading markets for the Old Notes that remain outstanding will become more limited. A debt security with a smaller outstanding principal amount available for trading (a smaller “float”) may command a lower price than would a comparable debt security with a greater float. Therefore, the market price for Old Notes not purchased may be affected adversely to the extent the amount of Old Notes purchased by Jamaica reduces the float of the Old Notes. On the other hand, if Jamaica’s purchase of the Old Notes is viewed by the market as significant positive news due to its potential beneficial impact on Jamaica’s external liabilities, the price of the Old Notes could rise following completion of the Invitation to a level greater than the applicable Purchase Price. The reduced float may also make the trading price of the Old Notes more volatile. The extent of the public market for the Old Notes following consummation of the Invitation will depend upon the number of holders that remain at such time, the interest in maintaining markets in the Old Notes on the part of securities firms and other factors. There can be no assurance that any trading market will exist for the Old Notes following the Invitation.

Other Purchases or Redemption of Old Notes. Whether or not the Invitation is consummated, Jamaica may acquire, from time to time following completion or cancellation of the Invitation, Old Notes other than pursuant to the Invitation, including through open market purchases, privately negotiated transactions, tender offers, exchange offers or otherwise (and may redeem (or defease, if applicable) the Old Notes in accordance with the Old Notes and the applicable indenture or fiscal agency agreement under which they were issued), upon such terms and at such prices as they may determine, which may be more or less than the prices to be paid pursuant to the Invitation and could be for cash or other consideration.

Enforcement of Civil Liabilities; Waiver of Sovereign Immunity. Jamaica is a foreign sovereign state. Consequently, it may be difficult for you to obtain or enforce judgments of courts in the United States or elsewhere against Jamaica.

The Consummation of the Invitation is Subject to the Satisfaction of Certain Conditions. The consummation of the Invitation is subject to the satisfaction of the Financing Condition and certain other conditions. These conditions are described in more detail in this Statement under “The Invitation—Conditions to the Invitation.” There can be no assurance that such conditions will be met with respect to the Invitation.

Holders are Responsible for Complying with the Procedures of the Invitation. In order to be eligible to receive payment for your Old Notes, you will need to properly deliver such Old Notes through the applicable clearing system (DTC, Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg) in accordance with the procedures and in the timeframe provided in this Invitation. If you hold Old Notes through a broker, it is your responsibility to ensure that your broker is aware of the times by which such clearing systems must receive your Old Notes and the clearing systems’ restrictions. Failure to deliver Old Notes on time may result in the cancellation of your tender. See “The Invitation—Procedures for Submitting Offers for Old Notes.”

Offers of the Old Notes, or Portions Thereof May be Rejected due to Proration. Offers of the Old Notes may be subject to proration, on the basis described under “The Invitation—Acceptance of Offers; Proration; Denomination; Rounding.” If the Tendered Principal Purchase Price would exceed the Maximum Purchase Price, then Jamaica will, in its sole discretion, select one or more series of Old Notes to be prorated on the basis of the same or different proration factors, so that the Tendered Principal Purchase Price accepted by Jamaica equals or does not exceed the Maximum Purchase Price. Accordingly, Offers of Old Notes may be rejected in whole or in part as a result of proration.

The Invitation May be Amended, Terminated or Delayed. The Invitation is subject to the satisfaction of certain conditions, including the Financing Condition. There can be no assurance that such conditions will be met with respect to the Invitation. Subject to applicable law and limitations described elsewhere in this document Jamaica may, in its sole discretion, extend, amend, waive any condition of or, upon failure of any condition described herein to be satisfied or waived, terminate the Invitation at any time at or prior to the applicable Expiration Deadline. Jamaica also reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to terminate the Invitation at any time at or prior to the Expiration Deadline. Accordingly, the Invitation may not be completed or, if completed, it may not be completed on the schedule described in this document, and holders participating in the Invitation may have to wait longer than expected to receive their consideration, during which time such holders will not be able to effect transfers of their Old Notes tendered in the Invitation.

THE INVITATION

Introduction

Jamaica is inviting holders of each series of Old Notes specified on the cover of this Invitation to submit Offers to tender their Old Notes for cash.

Jamaica reserves the right, in its sole discretion, not to accept any or all Offers and to terminate the Invitation for any reason in its discretion.

Purpose

The Invitation is part of a broader program of Jamaica to proactively manage its external public debt.

Source of Funds

Jamaica intends to use a portion of the proceeds from the issuance of the New Notes for cash to pay for Old Notes purchased pursuant to the Invitation.

Cash to be Received in Consideration for Old Notes

If you hold Old Notes and submit a valid Offer, and if Jamaica accepts your Offer (in whole or in part), Jamaica will pay you the Purchase Price (multiplied by the Amortization Factor, if applicable) plus Accrued Interest in respect of the accepted Old Notes in U.S. dollars, determined as set forth on the cover of this Invitation. If the Tendered Principal Purchase Price would exceed the Maximum Purchase Price, Jamaica will, in its sole discretion, select one or more series of Old Notes to be prorated on the basis of the same or different proration factors.

The Purchase Price (multiplied by the Amortization Factor, if applicable) plus Accrued Interest for any accepted Old Notes will be rounded to the nearest cent (U.S.$0.01). No compensation will be paid for rounded amounts.

Announcement of Expected Proration Factors and Results

At or about 4:00 p.m., New York City time, on the Announcement Date, Jamaica will make a public announcement of the Maximum Purchase Price and, if the Tendered Principal Purchase Price would exceed the Maximum Purchase Price, the announcement will include the expected proration factor for each series of Old Notes. Jamaica will also announce the approximate aggregate original principal amount of each series of Old Notes accepted for purchase and the approximate aggregate original principal amount of each series of Old Notes remaining outstanding following the completion of the Invitation. This information will also be available from the Dealer Managers and the Information and Tender Agent.

Jamaica reserves the right, in its sole discretion, not to accept any or all Offers, to modify the Purchase Price for any or all series of Old Notes upon the terms and conditions described herein, or to terminate the Invitation for any reason.

In the event of any dispute or controversy regarding the Purchase Price or Accrued Interest for each of the Old Notes tendered pursuant to the Invitation, Jamaica's determination shall be conclusive and binding, absent manifest error.

No Recommendation

NONE OF JAMAICA, THE DEALER MANAGERS OR THE INFORMATION AND TENDER AGENT MAKES ANY RECOMMENDATION THAT ANY HOLDER TENDER OR REFRAIN FROM TENDERING ALL OR ANY PORTION OF THE PRINCIPAL AMOUNT OF SUCH HOLDER'S OLD NOTES, AND NO ONE HAS BEEN AUTHORIZED BY ANY OF THEM TO MAKE SUCH A RECOMMENDATION. HOLDERS MUST MAKE THEIR OWN DECISIONS WHETHER TO TENDER OLD NOTES, AND, IF SO, MUST DECIDE ON THE PRINCIPAL AMOUNT OF OLD NOTES TO TENDER.

This Offer Document is not an offer to sell or a solicitation of an offer to buy the New Notes.

Any investment decision to purchase any New Notes should be made solely on the basis of the information contained in the prospectus to be prepared in connection with the issue and offering of the New Notes, and no reliance is to be placed on any information other than that contained in such prospectus. Subject to compliance with all applicable securities laws and regulations, the prospectus will be available from the joint bookrunners on request.

Duration of the Invitation

The Invitation will begin on Thursday, October 19, 2023. The Invitation and withdrawal rights will expire at 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on Friday, October 27, 2023, unless extended or earlier terminated by Jamaica in its sole discretion.

If the Invitation is extended or earlier terminated, the term "Expiration Deadline" shall mean the time and date on which the Invitation, as so extended or earlier terminated, shall expire.

Subject to applicable law, Jamaica expressly reserves the right, for any reason and in its sole discretion, to:

- modify the Maximum Purchase Price;
- extend or change the period of time during which the Invitation shall remain open at any time and from time to time by giving oral or written notice of such extension or change to the Dealer Managers and the Information and Tender Agent, and retain the Old Notes that have been tendered during any period for which the Invitation is extended;
- prospectively terminate or withdraw the Invitation at any time,
- waive all unsatisfied conditions and accept for payment and purchase all Old Notes that are validly tendered at or prior to the Expiration Deadline; or
- amend the terms of this Invitation in any other respect and from time to time in any fashion.

There can be no assurance that Jamaica will exercise its right to extend, terminate or amend the Invitation. Please note that the terms of any extension, termination or an amendment of the terms or conditions of the Invitation may vary from the terms of the original Invitation depending on such factors as prevailing interest rates and the principal amount of Old Notes previously tendered or otherwise purchased.

The failure by Jamaica at any time to exercise any of the foregoing rights will not be deemed a waiver of any other right and each right will be deemed an ongoing right that may be asserted at any time and from time to time.

Any extension, termination or amendment of the Invitation will be followed as promptly as practicable by public announcement thereof. Jamaica shall communicate such public announcement by issuing a press release to the News Service, and will subsequently publish such announcement on the website of the Luxembourg Stock Exchange (www.bourse.lu). See “The Invitation—Communications.”

Procedures for Submitting Offers for Old Notes

General

If you wish to tender Old Notes pursuant to the Invitation, the direct participant through which you hold your Old Notes must submit, prior to the Expiration Deadline, your offer to tender Old Notes in the applicable manner described below.

By submitting an Offer with respect to any series of Old Notes and thereby offering to tender them pursuant to the Invitation, you are deemed to make certain acknowledgments, representations, warranties and undertakings to Jamaica, the Dealer Managers and the Information and Tender Agent as set forth under “Holders’ Representations, Warranties and Undertakings.”

A defective tender of Old Notes will not entitle the holder thereof to the applicable Purchase Price plus Accrued Interest unless the relevant defect is waived by Jamaica. Any beneficial owner whose Old Notes are registered in the name of a custodian, nominee or participant of DTC and who wishes to tender its Old Notes should contact such custodian, nominee or participant promptly and instruct such custodian, nominee or participant to tender Old Notes on such beneficial owner’s behalf.

The Offer by a holder of Old Notes (and subsequent acceptance of such Offer by Jamaica) pursuant to the procedures set forth below will constitute a binding agreement between such holder and Jamaica in accordance with the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this document.

Each direct participant in DTC, Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg, by validly tendering the Old Notes, will be deemed to have given the authority to the relevant clearing system to provide details concerning such direct participant’s identity to the Information and Tender Agent.

The method of delivery of Old Notes and all other required documents, including delivery through DTC and any acceptance of an Agent’s Message (as defined below) transmitted through DTC’s Automated Tender Offer Program (“ATOP”) or an instruction transmitted through Euroclear or Clearstream, is at the election and risk of the person tendering Old Notes and delivery will be deemed made only when actually received by the Information and Tender Agent.

There is no letter of transmittal for the Invitation.

You must arrange for a direct participant in DTC to submit your tender offer to DTC through ATOP and follow the procedure for book-entry transfer set forth below. DTC has confirmed that Offers are eligible for ATOP. Accordingly, a DTC participant whose name appears on a security position listing as the holder of the relevant Old Notes must electronically tender its Old Notes causing DTC to transfer the Old Notes in the participant’s account to the Information and Tender Agent’s ATOP account at DTC in accordance with DTC’s ATOP procedures for such a transfer. DTC will then send an Agent’s Message to the Information and Tender Agent.

The term “Agent’s Message” means a message, transmitted by DTC, received by the Information and Tender Agent and forming a part of a book-entry confirmation, which states that DTC has received an express acknowledgment from the tendering participant, which acknowledgment states that such participant has received and agrees to be bound by the terms of the Invitation (as set forth in this document) and that Jamaica may enforce such agreement against such participant. Holders who intend to tender their Old Notes on the day the Invitation expires should allow sufficient time for completion of the ATOP procedures during the normal business hours of DTC on such date.

Although transfer of the Old Notes to the Information and Tender Agent's ATOP account at DTC may be effected through book-entry at DTC, an Agent's Message must be transmitted by DTC and received by the Information and Tender Agent prior to the Expiration Deadline in order to validly tender your Old Notes pursuant to the Invitation.

Your offer must be submitted through DTC's ATOP system in accordance with the deadlines and procedures established by DTC, and an Agent's Message with respect to your tender offer must be received by the Information and Tender Agent prior to the Expiration Deadline.

If you hold your Old Notes through Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg, you must arrange for a direct participant in Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg, as the case may be, to deliver your tender offer, to Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg in accordance with the procedures established by them and on or prior to the deadlines established by each of those clearing systems, which will be earlier than the Expiration Deadline. You are responsible for informing yourself of these deadlines and for arranging the due and timely delivery of instructions to Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg.

Deadlines

You are responsible for arranging the timely delivery of your tender offer pursuant to the procedures above.

None of Jamaica, the Dealer Managers or the Information and Tender Agent will be responsible for the communication of tender offers by:

- holders of Old Notes to the direct participant in DTC, Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg through which they hold Old Notes; or
- holders of Old Notes or the direct participant to the Information and Tender Agent, DTC, Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg.

If you hold Old Notes through a broker, dealer, commercial bank or financial institution, you should consult with that institution as to whether it will charge any service fees.

Irrevocability; Withdrawal Rights

Your tender offer will become irrevocable upon the expiration of the Invitation. However, any tender offer may be withdrawn or revised prior to the Expiration Deadline by withdrawing the tender offer in accordance with the procedures established by, and within the respective deadlines of, DTC, Euroclear or Clearstream, Luxembourg, as the case may be. If you have requested that a custodian submit a tender offer on your behalf and you would like to withdraw or revise your tender offer, you should contact that custodian and request it to withdraw or revise your tender offer prior to the Expiration Deadline. You should be aware, however, that the custodian may impose earlier deadlines for withdrawing or revising a tender offer in accordance with its procedures. If Jamaica does not accept all tender offers for any reason pursuant to the terms and conditions of this Invitation, any tender offers not so accepted shall automatically be deemed to be withdrawn. If as a result of the proration specified in "Acceptance of Offers; Proration; Denominations; Rounding" Jamaica does not accept some or all of your Old Notes tendered for cash, any tender offers not so accepted shall automatically be deemed to be withdrawn.

No Guaranteed Delivery

No guaranteed delivery procedures are being offered in connection with the Invitation. As holders are authorized to tender their Old Notes only through DTC, beneficial owners of Old Notes that are held in the name of a custodian must contact such entity sufficiently in advance of the Expiration Deadline if they wish to tender their Old Notes and be eligible to receive the applicable Purchase Price (multiplied by the Amortization Factor, if applicable) plus Accrued Interest for such Old Notes.

Acceptance of Offers; Proration; Denomination; Rounding

If the Tendered Principal Purchase Price would exceed the Maximum Purchase Price, Jamaica will, in its sole discretion, select one or more series of Old Notes to be prorated on the basis of the same or different proration factors.

Jamaica reserves the right, in its sole discretion, not to accept any or all Offers, to modify the Purchase Price for any or all series of Old Notes upon the terms and conditions described herein, or to terminate the Invitation for any reason.

Jamaica reserves the right to adjust any expected proration factors that it announces on the Announcement Date. Any adjustment to any expected proration factors will be made separately for each series of Old Notes, and Jamaica may announce that Offers to tender one or more series of Old Notes will be prorated, subject to the conditions described herein, even if any expected announcement of the results of the Invitation did not contain any expected proration factor for that series of Old Notes.

In the event proration occurs with respect to a series of Old Notes, the principal amount of each tender accepted in the Invitation will be determined by multiplying the tendered principal amount by the applicable proration rate and rounding the resulting amount down to the nearest authorized multiple denomination as specified in the table in “The Old Notes—Specified Denominations.” If Jamaica accepts your Offer of Old Notes of any series (in whole or in part), you will be entitled to receive the applicable Purchase Price (multiplied by the Amortization Factor, if applicable) plus Accrued Interest in respect of the accepted Old Notes, which will be paid to you on the Settlement Date. Depending on the amount tendered and the proration factor applied, if the original principal amount of Old Notes that are unaccepted and returned to a holder as a result of proration would result in less than the minimum denomination being returned to such holder Jamaica will either accept or reject all of such holder’s validly tendered notes.

Once Jamaica has announced by means of the News Service the acceptance of Offers in accordance with the terms of the Invitation, Jamaica’s acceptance will be irrevocable and Offers, as so accepted, will constitute binding obligations of the submitting holders and Jamaica to settle the Invitation, in the manner described under “—Settlement” below, subject in each case to the conditions described under “—Conditions to the Invitation” below.

Settlement

On the Settlement Date (expected to be Thursday, November 2, 2023), subject to the conditions set forth herein, Jamaica will purchase validly tendered and accepted Old Notes from holders.

Jamaica will cancel Old Notes purchased pursuant to the Invitation following the Settlement Date.

Payments for Old Notes purchased pursuant to the Invitation will be made in same day funds. The determination by Jamaica of any calculation or quotation made with respect to the Invitation shall be conclusive and binding on you, absent manifest error.

Conditions to the Invitation

Financing Condition

The Invitation is conditioned upon the issuance and sale for cash, in an amount and on terms and conditions acceptable to Jamaica, of the New Notes. There is no assurance that the New Notes Offering will be completed and the Financing Condition will be satisfied.

Other Conditions

Notwithstanding any other provision of the Invitation, Jamaica will not be required to consummate the Invitation if any of the following conditions occurs:

- any threatened, instituted or pending action or proceeding before any court or governmental, regulatory or administrative body which:
 - makes or seeks to make illegal the acceptance of payment of, or payment for, any of the Old Notes pursuant to the Invitation;
 - would or might result in a delay in, or restrict, the ability of Jamaica to accept for payment or pay for any of the Old Notes; or
 - imposes or seeks to impose limitations on the ability of Jamaica to repurchase or cancel the Old Notes;
- any general suspension of, or limitation on, trading in securities in the United States, the United Kingdom, the European Union or Jamaica, including in the over-the-counter market;
- a material impairment in the general trading market for debt securities;
- a commencement or escalation of a war, armed hostilities or other national or international crisis directly or indirectly relating to Jamaica, the European Union, the United Kingdom or the United States;
- any material adverse change or development, including a prospective change or development, in the general economic, political, financial, currency exchange or market conditions in the United States, Jamaica or elsewhere or in securities or financial markets generally; or
- other customary legal conditions for transactions of this nature.

Each of the foregoing conditions is for the sole benefit of Jamaica and may be waived by Jamaica, in whole or in part, at any time and from time to time, in its discretion. Any determination by Jamaica concerning the conditions set forth above (including whether or not any such condition has been satisfied or waived) will be final and binding upon all parties.

If any of the foregoing conditions is not satisfied, Jamaica may in its sole discretion:

- terminate the Invitation at any time before the Settlement Date and return all tendered Old Notes to the holders thereof as promptly as practicable following termination;
- modify, extend or otherwise amend the Invitation and retain all tendered Old Notes at any time before the Expiration Deadline of the Invitation, subject, however, to the withdrawal rights of the holders; or

- waive the unsatisfied conditions with respect to the Invitation and accept any or all Old Notes tendered and not previously withdrawn.

Market for the Old Notes

Jamaica will cancel Old Notes purchased pursuant to the Invitation following the Settlement Date. Accordingly, the tender of Old Notes pursuant to the Invitation will reduce the aggregate principal amount of Old Notes that otherwise might trade in the public market, which could adversely affect the liquidity and market value of the remaining Old Notes not offered or accepted pursuant to the Invitation. Old Notes not tendered pursuant to the Invitation will remain outstanding.

Communications

Information about the Invitation will be published, to the extent provided in this document, by means of press releases to the News Service, and will subsequently publish such announcement on the website of the Luxembourg Stock Exchange (www.bourse.lu).

Holders may obtain information about the Invitation by contacting the Dealer Managers or the Information and Tender Agent at the addresses and telephone numbers listed on the inside back cover of this document.

Certain Other Matters

Each proper Offer of an Old Note will constitute your binding agreement to block such Old Note at a clearing system as described in this document and to settle your tender on the Settlement Date. Jamaica's acceptance of an Offer by you with respect to any Old Note will constitute the agreement by you to deliver good and marketable title to such Old Note on the Settlement Date free and clear of all liens, charges, claims, encumbrances, interests, rights of third parties and restrictions of any kind.

All questions as to the validity, form and eligibility (including time of receipt), of any Offers or of any acceptance or settlement thereof will be determined by Jamaica, in its sole discretion, which determination shall be final and binding. Jamaica reserves the absolute right, in its sole discretion, to reject any and all Offers not in proper form or for which the corresponding settlement, in its opinion, would be unlawful. Jamaica also reserves the right to waive any defects, irregularities or conditions in acceptances and settlement with regard to any particular Old Note.

None of Jamaica, the Dealer Managers or the Information and Tender Agent or any other person will be under any duty to give notice to holders tendering Offers of Old Notes of any defects or irregularities in such Offers, nor shall any of them incur any liability for failure to give such notice.

Jamaica reserves the right at any time or from time to time following completion or cancellation of the Invitation to call for redemption or purchase Old Notes (including, without limitation, those tendered pursuant to this Invitation but not accepted), in the open market, in privately negotiated transactions, through subsequent tender offers or otherwise, in each case, on terms that may be more or less favorable than those contemplated by the Invitation. The making of any such new offers and the issuance of any new invitation will depend on various factors, including interest rates prevailing at such time and the principal amount of Old Notes retired pursuant to the Invitation.

TAXATION

General

A tender of Old Notes pursuant to this Invitation may be a taxable transaction under the laws applicable to a holder of Old Notes. You should consult your own tax advisors to determine the particular tax consequences that apply to you in respect of the sale of Old Notes.

Jamaican Income Tax Consequences Associated with the Old Notes

The following discussion summarizes certain aspects of Jamaican income taxation that may be relevant to you if you are a Non-Resident Holder (as defined below) of the Old Notes. For the purposes of this summary, you are a Non-Resident Holder if you are a holder of Old Notes who is an individual that is a non-resident of Jamaica or a legal entity that is not resident in Jamaica for income tax purposes; that is to say you are not centrally managed and controlled from Jamaica, irrespective of the place in which you may be incorporated. This summary may also be relevant to you if you are a Non-Resident Holder of Old Notes in connection with the holding and disposition of such Old Notes. The summary is based on Jamaican laws, rules and regulations now in effect, all of which may change. This summary is not intended to constitute a complete analysis of the income tax consequences under Jamaican law of the receipt, ownership or disposition of the Old Notes, in each case if you are a non-resident of Jamaica, nor to describe any of the tax consequences that may be applicable to you if you are a resident of Jamaica.

Income Tax

Interest or other income gains paid to a Non-Resident holder (whether individual, corporate body or other legal entity) of Old Notes on re-purchase are exempt from Income Tax by an Exemption Order made by the Minister acting pursuant to powers granted under Jamaican law. The Exemption Order does not apply to Jamaican residents and accordingly they (both individual and corporate and other bodies) will be liable for income tax on the gain realized on the sale of an Old Note. By virtue of section 31A of the Income Tax Act, such taxable gain will be the difference between the Purchase Price for an Old Note and the principal amount of such Note and the rate of tax will be 25%.

Other Taxes

Jamaica has no capital gains tax. There is a value added tax (called General Consumption Tax (“GCT”)) which arises on the sale or supply of goods and services in Jamaica. The sale, transfer or similar dealings in debt securities such as the Old Notes are exempt from GCT. Stamp duty (a form of documentary tax) is payable on numerous documents including debt securities at varying rates. Transfer tax at the rate of 2% is also payable on the transfer of securities including debt securities, which may be classified as “debentures”. Both the Stamp Duty Act and the Transfer Tax Act empowers the Minister of Finance, if he deems it just and equitable to do so (within certain extra-statutory monetary and justification limits voluntarily assumed by Jamaica to certain multilateral agencies), to exempt any stamp duty or transfer tax otherwise payable. In the case of the Old Notes the Minister of Finance made Exemption Orders exempting both stamp duty and transfer tax payable upon or in connection with the Old Notes.

Accordingly no stamp duty, transfer tax or other tax imposed in Jamaica will apply to the sale or redemption of the Old Notes (other than income tax upon Jamaican residents that are holders of Old Notes).

U.S. Federal Income Taxation

The following is a summary of certain U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Invitation that may be relevant to you if you are a beneficial owner of Old Notes that is (i) a citizen or resident of the United States, (ii) a corporation (or any other entity treated as a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes) created or organized in or under the laws of the United States, any state thereof or the District of Columbia, (iii) an estate whose income is subject to U.S. federal income taxation regardless of its source; or (iv) a trust, if a U.S. court is able to exercise primary supervision over the administration of the trust and one or more “United States persons” (as defined in the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, (the “Code”)) have the authority to control all substantial decisions of the trust, or the trust has a valid election in effect under applicable regulations to be treated as a “United States person” (a “U.S. Holder”). This summary is based on the Code, U.S. Treasury regulations promulgated thereunder, and administrative and judicial interpretations thereof, as of the date hereof, all of which are subject to change, possibly on a retroactive basis. The discussion does not deal with special classes of holders, such as dealers in securities or currencies, banks, financial institutions, insurance companies, traders that elect to mark-to-market their securities, tax-exempt organizations, entities or arrangements classified as partnerships (or other pass-through entities) and the partners therein, persons holding Old Notes as a position in a “straddle” or conversion transaction, or as part of a “synthetic security” or other integrated financial transaction, “controlled foreign corporations” or “passive foreign investment companies” within the meaning of the Code, regulated investment companies or real estate investment trusts, or persons that have a functional currency other than the U.S. dollar. If a partnership (or entity arranged as a partnership) holds Old Notes, the U.S. federal income tax treatment of a partner in the partnership will generally depend on the status of the partner and the activities of the partnership. A partner in a partnership that holds Old Notes (and each partnership) should consult its tax advisors regarding the U.S. federal income tax consequences to it of the Invitation. This discussion does not address gift or estate taxes, the alternative minimum tax, the tax on net investment income, rules requiring persons that use the accrual method of accounting to include certain amounts in income no later than the time such amounts are reflected on certain financial statements or other aspects of U.S. federal, state or local taxation that may be relevant to a holder in light of such holder’s particular circumstances. This discussion assumes that you hold the Old Notes as “capital assets” within the meaning of Section 1221 of the Code.

This discussion does not address all of the U.S. federal tax consequences of U.S. Holders that sell their Old Notes pursuant to the Invitation and purchase New Notes pursuant to the New Notes Offering. U.S. Holders who will acquire New Notes in connection with the Invitation should consult their own tax advisors regarding the U.S. federal income tax consequences to them of the sale of their Old Notes and the acquisition of the New Notes, including the potential application of the wash sale rules.

This summary does not discuss all aspects of U.S. federal income taxation that may be relevant to particular U.S. Holders in light of their particular circumstances. U.S. Holders are urged to consult their tax advisors as to the particular tax consequences to them of the Invitation, including the effect of any federal, state, local, foreign and other tax laws and any applicable tax treaty.

Sales of Old Notes

Sales of Old Notes pursuant to the Invitation generally will be taxable transactions for U.S. federal income tax purposes. Subject to the discussion of the market discount rules set forth below, you will recognize capital gain or loss in an amount equal to the difference between the amount of cash you receive (other than amounts received attributable to accrued interest, which will be taxable as interest income to the extent not previously included in your income) and your adjusted tax basis in the Old Notes sold at the time of sale. Your adjusted tax basis in an Old Note will generally equal the amount you paid for the Old Note, reduced by any premium you have previously amortized and any payments you have received on the Old Note (other than payments of qualified stated interest) and increased by the amount of any market discount that you have elected to include in income currently as it accrues (as described below). Except to the extent that any gain is recharacterized as ordinary income pursuant to the market discount rules discussed below, any such gain or loss will be long-term capital gain or loss if your holding period in the Old Notes exceeds one year on the date of the sale. Certain non-corporate U.S. Holders (including individuals) may be eligible for preferential tax rates in respect of long-term capital gain. The deductibility of capital losses by U.S. Holders is subject to limitations.

In general, market discount is the excess, if any, of the stated redemption price at maturity of an Old Note over your tax basis therein at the time of the acquisition of such Old Note, unless the amount of the excess is less than a specified de minimis amount, in which case market discount is considered to be zero. If you acquired the Old

Notes with market discount, any gain you realize pursuant to the sale of Old Notes will be treated as ordinary income to the extent of the portion of the market discount that has accrued (on a straight-line basis or, at the election of the U.S. Holder, on a constant-yield basis) while you held the Old Notes, unless you elected to include market discount in income currently as it accrues. U.S. Holders are urged to consult their own tax advisors as to the portion of their gain, if any, that would be taxable as ordinary income under these provisions.

Gain or loss recognized pursuant to the Invitation generally will be treated as U.S.-source income or loss for U.S. foreign tax credit purposes except that accrued and unpaid interest income with respect to the Old Notes that is treated as paid as a result of the disposition will constitute income from sources outside the United States and generally will constitute “passive category income” for U.S. foreign tax credit purposes. The rules governing the U.S. foreign tax credit are complex, and each U.S. Holder is urged to consult its own tax advisor regarding the application of the rules to its particular circumstances.

If you purchase New Notes pursuant to the New Notes Offering, you should consult your tax advisor to determine whether your sale of Old Notes pursuant to the Invitation and your subsequent purchase of New Notes pursuant to the New Notes Offering should be characterized as an integrated transaction that is treated as a taxable exchange of New Notes for Old Notes and the U.S. federal income tax consequences of such treatment.

Information Reporting and Backup Withholding

You may be subject to information reporting and backup withholding unless (i) you fall within certain other exempt categories (including certain corporations) and demonstrate this fact or (ii) you provide a correct taxpayer identification number, certify as to no loss of exemption from backup withholding and otherwise comply with applicable requirements of the backup withholding rules. Backup withholding is not an additional tax. The amount of any amount withheld pursuant to the backup withholding rules will be allowed as a credit against your U.S. federal income tax liability and may entitle you to a refund, provided that the required information is furnished to the IRS in a timely manner. U.S. Holders are urged to consult their own tax advisors as to their qualification for exemption from backup withholding and the procedure for obtaining such exemption.

JURISDICTIONAL RESTRICTIONS

The distribution of the Invitation and the transactions contemplated hereby are restricted by law in certain jurisdictions. Persons into whose possession this Invitation come are required by Jamaica and the Dealer Managers to inform themselves of and to observe any of these restrictions. Each person accepting the Invitation shall be deemed to have represented, warranted and agreed (in respect of itself and any person for whom it is acting) that it is not a person to whom it is unlawful to make an Invitation pursuant to this Invitation (including under the applicable securities laws referenced below), it has not distributed or forwarded this Invitation or any other documents or materials relating to the Invitation to any such person, and it has (before offering the Old Notes for exchange) complied with all laws and regulations applicable to it for the purposes of its participation in the Invitation.

None of Jamaica or the Dealer Managers accepts any responsibility for any violation by any person of the restrictions applicable in any jurisdiction.

In any jurisdiction in which the Invitation is required to be made by a licensed broker or dealer and in which any Dealer Manager or any of its affiliates is so licensed, it shall be deemed to be made by the Dealer Managers or such affiliates.

Jamaica

No purchase of any securities in connection with this Invitation can be completed in Jamaica unless the purchase is made by or through a securities dealer registered with the Financial Services Commission or an exempt dealer (being a bank). However, Jamaican law does not prevent a Jamaican resident from selling securities outside the jurisdiction.

Any investment or investment activity to which this Invitation or any other offer material relating to the Invitation relates is available only to relevant persons and will be engaged in only with relevant persons. Any person who is not a relevant person should not act or rely on this Invitation or these other documents and/or materials or any of its or their contents.

Each intermediary must comply with the applicable laws and regulations concerning information duties vis à vis its clients in connection with the Old Notes or the Invitation.

DEALER MANAGERS AND INFORMATION AND TENDER AGENT

Jamaica has entered into a Dealer Manager Agreement with BofA Securities, Inc. and Citigroup Global Markets Inc. to act as Dealer Managers for the Invitation. Pursuant to the Dealer Manager Agreement, Jamaica has:

- retained the Dealer Managers to act, directly or through affiliates, as the dealer managers in connection with the Invitation;
- agreed to reimburse the Dealer Managers for certain expenses in connection with the Invitation; and
- agreed to indemnify the Dealer Managers against certain liabilities and expenses in connection with the Invitation, including liabilities under the U.S. Securities Act of 1933, as amended. The Dealer Manager Agreement contains various other representations, warranties, covenants and conditions customary for agreements of this sort.

Global Bondholder Services Corporation will act as Information and Tender Agent in connection with the Invitation. Global Bondholder Services Corporation's New York address is 65 Broadway - Suite 404, New York, NY 10006. The Information and Tender Agent will be paid customary fees for its services in connection with the Invitation.

We expect that each of the Dealer Managers will participate as an underwriter in connection with the New Notes Offering. Each of the Dealer Managers has provided and may continue to provide certain investment banking services to Jamaica for which they have received and may receive compensation that is customary for services of such nature. The Dealer Managers may trade, or hold a long or short position in, the Old Notes, the New Notes or other debt securities or related derivatives of Jamaica for their own accounts or for the accounts of their clients at any given time, and the Dealer Managers may participate in the Invitation by submitting tenders on their own behalf or by submitting tenders on behalf of clients.

Some of the Dealer Managers and their affiliates have engaged in, and may in the future engage in, investment banking and other commercial dealings in the ordinary course of business with Jamaica. They have received, or may in the future receive, customary fees and commissions for these transactions and services.

In addition, in the ordinary course of their business activities, the Dealer Managers and their affiliates may make or hold a broad array of investments and actively trade debt securities (or related derivative securities) and financial instruments (including bank loans) for their own account and for the accounts of their clients. Such investments and securities activities may involve securities and/or instruments of Jamaica. If any of the Dealer Managers or their affiliates have a lending relationship with Jamaica, certain of those Dealer Managers or their affiliates routinely hedge, and certain others of those Dealer Managers or their affiliates may hedge, their credit exposure to Jamaica consistent with their customary risk management policies. Typically, such Dealer Managers and their affiliates would hedge such exposure by entering into transactions which consist of either the purchase of credit default swaps or the creation of short positions in Jamaica's securities, including potentially the New Notes. Any such credit default swaps and short positions could adversely affect future trading prices of the New Notes. The Dealer Managers and their affiliates may also make investment recommendations and/or publish or express independent research views in respect of such securities or financial instruments and may hold, or recommend to clients that they acquire, long and/or short positions in such securities and instruments.

In connection with the Invitation, Jamaica may solicit, or cause to be solicited, tenders by use of postal services, personally or by telephone, electronic mail, facsimile, telegram or other similar methods.

The Dealer Managers have agreed to pay for certain expenses in connection with the Invitation.

None of the Dealer Managers, the Information and Tender Agent, the clearing systems or any of their respective directors, employees or affiliates assumes any responsibility for the accuracy or completeness of the information concerning the Invitation or Jamaica contained or incorporated by reference herein or for any failure by Jamaica to disclose events that may have occurred and may affect the significance or accuracy of such information.
